

Please leave the Indiana Law governing telephone privacy just as it is. It has been so nice not to answer the phone 10 times a day to find a solicitor on the other end. I want my privacy and not have my dinner interrupted with someone asking me a bunch of questions. I value my time with my children and do not want my privacy violated by strangers. Thank you for your time